FARMERS MEET AGAIN

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 5.—(Special.)—The Breckenridge County Dark Tobacco Growers, association held their third regular meeting at the court house, last Saturday. It was, by far, the largest and most enthusiastic gathering that has yet been held. The president of the association, G. S. Wilson, expressed himself as being highly pleased and greatly encouraged, as did nearly every other farmer who was in attendance. All now begin to feel that a permanent organization of all the dark tobacco growers of the Green river district, is practically assured.

Steps were taken, that, it is believed, will soon lead to this desired end, and a State convention of the growers of the weed was called to meet in Owensboro, on the second Monday in July, next, to which everyone of the forty-four counties in the First, Second, Third and Fourth congressional districts, is invited and urged to send delegates. Resolutions were carefully drawn and unanimously adopted, which, as nearly as possible, set forth the purposes and plans of the organization. The committee on resolutions, composed of Messrs. W. S. H. H. Tani and Matthew Shewberry. The resolutions will be published in full in the next issue of the News.

The News is in full sympathy and accord with this much needed movement among the farmers and it tenderers them its hearty support in this effort to increase the price of this staple product.

Funeral At Freedom.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 5.—(Special.)—Will H. Hook died, very suddenly, here at his home of hemorrhage of the lungs, on Monday, March 28. The funeral services were held on the following day at Freedom church, where the deceased held his membership. He was a son of the late Rev. Henry Hook, was thirty-seven years of age and unmarried. He leaves a mother and many other relatives to mourn his untimely loss.

Deals At Hardinsburg.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 5.—(Special.)—County Clerk Wm. F. Hook has purchased the Moorman home- stead. The consideration was $1,000. Mrs. Judith M. Hall has purchased of Wm. F. Hook his residence on Cloverport street. The consideration was $800.

To Open Run This Week.

Henry Cole Released.

Henry Cole, colored, of this city, who shot an Owensboro negro at Haverhill March 28, was released from custody at Haverhill last week, as the latter did not appear in court to testify against him.

Milledgeville, Ky., Jan. 1, 1903.—Dr. W. H. Hall, St. Louis, Mo., Dear Sir: I have been a great sufferer from kidney disease and was treated by my own physicians with no benefit. Your Texas Wonder has cured me and I am satisfied it saved my life, and I can heartily recommend it to ladies suffering with kidney and bladder troubles.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Eliza Frost.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emission, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two month's treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 239, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists. Office, 3631 Olive street.

AT THE CHURCHES.

At the M. E. church, South, Sunday morning a good-sized audience heard a strong and interesting sermon on the Resurrection by Rev. P. L. King, an excellent rendition of "Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass and, as an offertory, Fauré's "See Now Our Altar," by the choir. In the evening a large audience was held attentive an hour and a half by a much enjoyed and much praised rendition of the oratorio-cantata, "David, King of Israel," which was first sung in the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, March 13. The cantata was sung by the choir of the Methodist church and members of the choir of the Baptist church, under the able leadership of A. H. Murray.

Father C. Brey preached at St. Rose's at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning on the Resurrection and at the Immaculate Conception church, at Haverhill, at 10:45 o'clock. The vocal and instrumental music program at each church was as follows:

Kyrle.....Battman
Gloria.....Battman
Gredo.....Battman
Regina Coeli.....Wagner
Sanctus.....Battman
Agnus Dei.....Battman.

Father Aloysius G. Meyer, of Brown's Valley, near Owensboro, delivered an excellent lecture on "The Passion of Our Lord," at St. Rose's Friday evening. He spoke for about forty-five minutes to a congregation of the different denominations of the town.

Rev. C. G. Bolton, of near Louisville, is conducting a protracted meeting at the Baptist church this week. He delivered his opening sermon Sunday morning. Two services, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, are being held daily and every one is cordially invited to attend.

Fiscal Court in Session.

Harrisburg, Ky., April 5.—(Special.)—Fiscal court convened here yesterday with Judge Matthias Miller presiding.

TOBINSPORT FIGHT.

Tobinsport, Ind., across the river from this city, was the scene of a peculiar affray Saturday which might have resulted in a double or a triple tragedy. Two young men of that place came to blows without any apparent cause and the mother of one tried to get mixed up in the melee with a hatchet—but didn't and that's why no one was killed.

The affair occurred in Geo. Polk's store about 9 o'clock in the evening. The fight went something after this fashion: Starting Kindie struck Sam Groves in the mouth and knocked him down. Dute Suters knocked down Tom Groves and Groves, in turn, hit Suters in the mouth and knocked him down. For a time it was a fist and skull, knife-dashing rough and tumble free for all fight on the floor, out on the porch and in the street. In the general uproar Suters, mother cried for a hatchet to wreak her vengeance on those who had caused her son to fall, but, as aforesaid, there was none forthcoming. Tobin Groves tried to act as peace-maker and got his hand cut. No one seemed to be drinking and the exact cause of the affray is not clear. Probably there was no cause and they wanted a good, old-fashioned fight just for the excitement it afforded—and they got it, several bruised faces being left to tell the tale.

KENTUCKY'S EXHIBIT.

The headquarters of the Kentucky World's Fair Commission will be moved this week from Louisville to the Kentucky Building on the Exposition grounds at St. Louis. The Secretary and Director of Exhibits will open offices in the Kentucky Building with his assistants, and therefore from this date all exhibits, for either the Kentucky Building, consisting of fine arts, woman's work, relics, books, etc., or for the different exhibits, such as, consisting of minerals, agriculture, educational displays, forestry, etc., should be shipped direct to the exposition. The railroad companies require prepayment on all freight shipments from the point of origin to the building for which they are destined in the exposition grounds. Any railroad agent will compute these charges for exhibitors.

Mrs. Bertha Miller Smith, of Richmond, has been elected hostess of the Kentucky Building at the World's Fair after a most spirited contest before the Kentucky Commission. Mrs. Smith is the widow of Dr. A. W. Smith, of Richmond, who at the time of his death was Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the Order of Elks for Kentucky. She is a woman of culture and refinement, and will certainly add both grace and charm to the new Kentucky Home at this great exposition. Besides Mrs. Smith there will be two other ladies in the Kentucky Building—Mrs. Fanny A. Carothers, of Bardonia, as Superintendent of the Women's Work exhibit and Mrs. Mary A. Burton, of Lebanon, in charge of the Information Bureau on the first floor.

The next meeting of the Commissioners will be held in the Kentucky Building on April 30 at 10 o'clock. This is the opening day of the Exposition and the business session of the Commission will be over in time for the board to attend the opening ceremonies to be presided over by a Kentucky President. President David R. Francis, President Theodore Roosevelt will press the button which will put life into the exposition at 1 o'clock on April 30. At this meeting of the Commission a program for Kentucky Day at the Exposition, Thursday, June 3 will be decided upon. The only debate part of the program was agreed upon is the playing of "My Old Kentucky Home" on the big pipe organ in Festival Hall, and the singing of the song, "Green Kentucky Pasture" written by Miss Kate Maunier McKinney, of Montgomery, Ala., a former Kentuckian who is known to fame as "Katydidd." This song will doubtless be sung by a well-known Louisville tenor.

At a meeting of the Kentucky World's Fair Commission last Friday, it was decided to limit the classes of live stock that would be entitled to duplicate premiums up to the amount of $7,500 from the State appropriation to horses, mules, jacks, jinnies, cattle, sheep, hogs and angora goats. These duplicate premiums will be limited to Kentucky stock on order to participate in the distribution of this $7,500 appropriation duplicate entries must be sent to J. B. Bowles, Commissioner in charge of live stock, Bardonia, Kentucky, prior to August 1.

ROAD PROPOSITION.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 5.—(Special.)—It is stated on good authority that a proposition will be submitted to the present Fiscal Court to issue bonds to the extent of $200,000 for the purpose of metalling the roads in the county. The advocates of this measure contend that by this means about 250 miles of road can be piked. They claim that the proposition will carry. It is not known, however, how the members of the court stand on this question, but it can be stated, authoritatively, that it was the opinion of several as prominent and influential men are behind the scheme.

Elect School Trustees.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 5.—(Special.)—At an election held here last Saturday Jesse Whitworth, Nathaniel Watlington, and A. A. Kinchebo were chosen as trustees of the Hardinsburg school district.

In marked contrast to the great number of patent medicines, cure-alls and secret preparations is Walther's Peptonized Port.

This preparation claims no magic virtues has no mysterious composition, and does not presume upon the intelligence of the people by pretending to be a sovereign cure for all the ills to which the flesh is heir.

Walther's Peptonized Port comes as a common sense tonic, composed of two well-known remedies—port wine and pepton, about the efficacy of which there is no question. All druggists sell Walther's Peptonized Port.

A Kansas Leaf.

South Haven, Kan., April 5.—(Special.)—A fine ten-pound boy was born, on March 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Leaf, of South Haven. Mr. Leaf is a son of W. S. Leaf, formerly of Tobinsport, Ind.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

Short & Haynes, the popular druggists, are making an offer that is just like finding money. They are selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of consumption and dyspepsia at half-price. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty-cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently, through the solicitation of Druggist Short & Haynes, that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. They urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified their good judgment, for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, Short & Haynes will return your money.

Got the Comma Wrong.

A misplaced comma has got a Greeley county, Kas., paper into a peck of trouble. The journal in question recently published an item in which the following sentence occurred: "Two young men from Leoti went with their girls to Tribune to attend the teachers' institute and as soon as they left, the girls got drunk." The comma belonged after "the girls," and the latter are making it hot for the editor.—St. Paul Globe.

Are You a Dyspeptic?

If you are a dyspeptic you owe it to yourself and your friends to get well. Dyspepsia annoys the dyspeptic's friends because his disease shows his disposition as well as his stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will not only cure dyspepsia, indigestion and sour stomach, but this palatable, reconstructive tonic digests and strengthens the whole digestive apparatus and sweetens the life as well as the stomach. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure the food you eat is enjoyed. It is digested, assimilated and its nutrient properties by the blood and tissues. Health is the result. Sold by All Druggists.

A Thrifty Fisherman.

Charles Allen, the fisherman from Rock Island, a few miles above this city, about twice a week brings a fine lot of fish to this place for shipment to Louisville. However, he manages to sell many pounds here at a very high price. For instance, catfish bring him ten cents gross and salmon twenty. Allen is supposed to have a shantyboat full of $30 gold pieces.—Hawesville Plaindealer.

Some Big Boats Lost.

A complete list of the boats which the Memphis and Cincinnati packet company has lost would be difficult to obtain. Away back in the eighties the old DeSoto, a boat that made a river navigation famous, burned at Owensboro one morning. The State of Missouri went to the bottom at Hancock bend, near Hawesville, Ky. The State of Kansas burned in the Mississippi, below Memphis; the Longfellow, one of the most famous boats to ply the Ohio, went down at Cincinnati, the old Congo, another famous boat burned at St. Louis; Buckeye State burned at Barkfield, Ark.; The Ohio sank in upper Ohio, the famous and beautiful Guiding Star burned in the Mississippi, the John K. Speed burned at the dock in New Orleans, the City of Pittsburgh burned at Cairo two years ago and sixty people were roasted alive, and several weeks ago the Sunshinewas burned at Tiptonville, Tenn.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take and it is good alike for young and old. Sold by All Druggists.

ORIGIN OF ALL FOOLS' DAY IS VEILED IN MYSTERY.

Last Friday was 'All Fools' Day' and the small boy and the practical joker were in their glory.

There are many theories as to the origin of April Fools' day. April was in the old Roman reckoning, the second month of the year, but it is counted in the Julian calendar as the fourth. In many countries of Europe, England, France and Germany, the first of April has for long been appropriated to a facetious custom, for which no very satisfactory origin has been assigned. To send an unsuspecting or ignorant person on some bootless errand is the great endeavor of the day. In Scotland the unfortunate subject of the trick is called a gawk, which has now, though the words were probably at one time different, the meaning both of "fool" and "cuckoo"—and the mischievous errand sending is "hunting a gawk."

In France the dupe is called pison d'Avril, or April fish. One remarkable theory traces the custom to Noah, as sending out his dove on such a quest; it is also referred to in the miracle plays representing the sending of our Savior from Anna to Calaphas and from Pilate to Herod, or to the change, in France, in 1564, of New Year's day to the first of January, which left the first of April destitute of anything out of a burlesque of its former festivities; and more recently an identification has been attempted with the Hildoe festival of Hail, which is celebrated in a similar manner on the 1st of March.

K. P. Lodges Growing.

All over the State K. P. Lodges are enjoying a rapid growth in membership. The local lodge is increasing its strength at nearly every meeting and, considering the size of the town, it is doing exceedingly well. Louisville, especially, is one point where increased membership is very noticeable. Clay Lodge alone having a class of 1,000 to be initiated some time in June.

The bi-annual encampment of the Knights of Pythias in Louisville this year promises to be a great event and nearly every member of the local lodge expects to be in attendance.

Hawesville's New Bank.

Organizers of the proposed new bank of Hawesville will, we understand, meet in this city next Wednesday to elect officers and directors and to incorporate. John S. Adair is the moving spirit back of the enterprise and he will probably divide time between his Stephenson bank and the one here, although it is believed Mr. T. D. Hale will be chosen as assistant cashier and will be actively in charge of matters. They hope to be ready for business May 1.—Hancock Clarion.

Dog Meat for Filipinos.

St. Louis, March 31.—Beginning April 1, "All fools day," all the stray dogs in St. Louis will be served daily to members of the Igorrotes and other tribes of Filipinos at the world's fair. The arrangements were completed to day. The Igorrotes are very fond of dog meat and today threatened to strike unless served with their favorite flesh.

New Buildings.

The News knows of seven or eight local parties who will build this year, not nothing will be published concerning the size, location, etc., of the new buildings until the parties have made all the necessary plans and arrangements. Most of the buildings will be substantial residences. To secure suitable sites is the main problem that confronts most of the prospective builders at present.

Will Fight Lucas.

A committee of State bankers met in Louisville last week and determined that all the banks in the State shall join in a united effort to resist the suits filed by Frank A. Lucas, State Auditor's agent, of Paducah, to collect a lot of back taxes on bank deposits, and accordingly employed Humphrey, Barnett & Humphrey, of Louisville, to represent the various banks that have been sued.

The great American trouble is indigestion, largely a result of the great American habit of hurry.

Hastily swallowed meals are probably the greatest cause of indigestion.

The stomach is given more than its share of work and is weakened. The first thing to do in correcting the trouble is to stop fast eating. Then next thing is to take a good digestive tonic to strengthen the digestion and enrich the impoverished blood.

Such a tonic is Walther's Peptonized Port, a simple combination of pure pepsin and good port wine, to be had at all druggists.

THIRTEEN HAS NO TERRORS FOR KENTUCKY COMMISSION.

Thirteen is a number which has no terror for the members of the Kentucky Commission of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The number thirteen and the unlucky day of the week, Friday, have followed the organization since its formation. The death of two members left only thirteen men on the directorate of the Kentucky Exhibit Association. The association was formed just thirteen months before the Kentucky Commission succeeded it. It was organized on Friday. Since the organization of the Kentucky Commission thirteen of the commissioners have been present at every meeting and every meeting has been held on Friday. The House bill making the Louisiana Purchase Exposition appropriation was No. 13, and the members of the exhibit association went to Frankfort to work in the interest of the bill on January 13. The Kentucky building at St. Louis was dedicated on February 13, and the Kentucky Legislature and State officials went to St. Louis on Friday to attend the celebration.

The consistent violation of the unlucky omens seems to bring as good fortune as consistent regard for them, for the showing of Kentucky at the World's Fair is an advance and is in better condition than that of any other State. Friday and thirteen seem to have worked a charm rather than otherwise.

Using an Income.

No one can use an income with true economy who does not exert his best judgment and put forth all the wisdom he possesses to make it fulfill the highest ends of which it is capable in his peculiar circumstances. If it does not make some lives better, fuller and happier; if it does not develop the body and enliven the mind; if it does not promote industry, honesty and good will; if, in fact, it does nothing to elevate and improve mankind, then waste and not economy is shown in its management.

Why Should a Merchant Use Good Stationery?

BECAUSE

it enhances the value of your statements; creates a higher estimation in the mind of your constituency of your business ability; goes far toward the making of an estimable reputation, which is a valuable thing in business, you know.

Every merchant, whether doing a large or small volume of business, should use good stationery. However, some merchants do not give the matter of stationery any consideration, whatever, they simply trod on the well-worn paths of the past decades, seemingly, caring not whether they get the full value of their investment.

Go up to desk and see if you have a supply of good stationery, stationery that would reflect credit upon your judgment of what is the best for this part of your business. If you find you haven't this sort of stationery, sit down and write us for samples and prices of our work. We feel that we can safely state that you would be pleased with them, because nearly 30 years of experience in the printing business has given us a knowledge of what superior stationery is and how it should be made, which we employ at all times.

Because we make good stationery we don't charge more for it than is actually necessary. Modern printing facilities and systematic management enable us to execute a high quality of work at a reasonable price.

It's a fact for which we should be grateful that many of the citizens of the State have had the opportunity to read the principal State organs of both of the great political parties. That at they have seen other papers is a fact for which we should be still more grateful. One has been going after the grafters at Washington this year and the other after the grafters at Frankfort. If it were not for some of these papers that have got in between we would have more biased neighbors than we would care to, we believe.

Martin Beard, of Hardinsburg, has one of the prettiest blue grass lawns in front of his residence at Hardinsburg we have ever seen. It is a credit to Mr. Beard and to the town. It is also an object lesson in what can be done with our soil.
Here was a plot of ground which two years ago was as barren as the street in front of it. Now it is covered with a full coat of that which the Kentuckians boast—Kentucky's famous blue grass. How did Mr. Beard accomplish this result? Simply by applying what was needed to help nature do its work. What Mr. Beard has done for his plot of ground others can do with theirs. It proves conclusively that it is not the fault of the soil or the climate. Blue grass will grow in the Brook-savage as well as in Fayette, if you only give it a chance.

The following from an exchange expresses our sentiments on a very important matter of home interests. It says: "Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick? Was it your home merchant or was it Sears & Roebuck? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it Montgomery, Ward & Co. or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for the church or some needy person do you write to the Fair store in Chicago or do you go to your home people? How much does Selgel, Cooper & Co. pay towards keeping up the sidewalks of the town or towards raising your pastor's salary?
When your loved one was buried was it your home paper that held the tears of sympathy and uttered the cheering word, or was it some Chicago or New York paper? Gentlemen, your home people are your friends in all lines of business and it is your duty to patronize them."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition to the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

APPROPRIATENESS IN DRESS.

Part I.

BY CHRISTINE TERHUNE HERRICK.
 Author of "Cradle and Nursery," "First Aid to the Young Housekeeper," "House-keeping Made Easy," "What to Eat," "In City Tents," etc.
 Copyright, 1904, by Christine Terhune Herrick.

Never yet was there a normal woman who did not wish to dress well. What dressing well means is determined by each one for herself. In the early stages it probably meant unadorned flax leaves, and a little later a new pett from that or that animal or a new style in a garment woven of the bark of trees.

Such simplicity has unfortunately come to an end. The point has been reached where a woman cannot dress as she pleases, but must please to dress like the majority of woman. It is a blessed dispensation that she usually likes to be in the fashion, or somewhere near it, and feels it no hardship to conform to prevailing modes. In fact, she usually likes it. Her chief difficulty is how to manage to conform when she has not enough money to do it on.

Appropriate dressing should be an easy matter for the woman who has a generous allowance for her wardrobe. Then it is her own fault if she does not have suitable costumes for every emergency. Appropriate dressing is also without complications for the women who never go anywhere except to church, and whose needs are supplied by working frocks and one gown for best. Even such an one doubtless thinks she has her troubles, but they are nothing to those of the woman who must, so to speak, serve two masters,—or who, in other words, must fill more functions than those of the housekeeper and church goer, and must dress for these other things without exceeding a comparatively small sum. Such a woman finds dressing well more or less of a problem, usually more rather than less. To women like this in these times can recall how the waists gave out before the skirts and left one before the latter in tolerable order and a painful derelict of the former. Now, when one has a skirt of which the body part is perfectly good, a skirt waist can be made to take place of the outworn garment.

Even with this expedient it is still

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medicinal triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for every ailment, but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital ways, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special dispensation has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Elm Street, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and Home of Swamp-Root dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A DUTY WOMEN OWE THEMSELVES.

"Good actions speak louder than words," so too does the testimony of many thousands of women during a half of a century speak louder than mere claims backed by a guarantee of some kind. That is the reason why the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are willing to offer $500 reward for women who can not be cured. Such a remarkable offer is founded on the long record of cures by an occasional slip.

All this is for the plain house or street dress. When one comes to evening dress the matter is more complicated. Even here the separate waist comes in as a respectable makeshift. I know a woman who considers herself fortunate in owning a handsome black broadcloth gown, which she wears on state occasions, at receptions and teas.

When she goes to a dinner where full dress is essential, she exchanges the black broadcloth waist for a low necked bolero of chiffon and crepe de chine, but the black broadcloth skirt is still worn. If she could, she would indulge herself in a heavy silk skirt, but as she cannot, she relies upon the combination I have described.

The sisters of the Good Shepherd, at their convent, "Our Lady of the Woods," Larchmont, N. Y., in a recent letter to Dr. Pierce's medicines say, "We beg to assure you of the great benefit these medicines have brought to our convent. We can not sufficiently recommend their excellence." When the druggist says he has something that is good for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, just tell him, "There's nothing just as good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." It is a better profit but his own mixtures have not stood the test of long experience and success that Dr. Pierce's medicines have. Then, too, many patent medicines advertised as tonics, contain large quantities of alcohol. Dr. Pierce guarantees that his "Prescription" does not contain a particle of alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—sent on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for a copy in paper; 2 stamps in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

possible for women to make mistakes in their dressing. One of the chief of these they commit when they buy conspicuous clothing. (I am speaking now of the woman who must wear one gown a long time.) The striking effect may be charming at first, but before the frock or the hat or the coat is half worn out the woman who wears it and the friends who see her wear it are tired to death of it.

Another blunder that women make sometimes is in buying articles of apparel which will not go together well. We all know the woman who has bought a snuff colored gown and a drab jacket, or a dark green gown and a hat trimmed with a blue that makes a discord of tints that set the teeth on edge. The woman who must economize on her clothing must buy things that go together well and every piece of her attire must be selected, not for its beauty alone, but because it will harmonize with the rest of her costume.

Simple styles should also be chosen by the woman who can have only a limited wardrobe. Extremes in fashion should be charming at first, but is the same objection to those that there is to the startling effects to which I referred a moment ago. More than this, such a woman should study what suits her. Because a certain garment looks well in a fashion plate or on a figure in a show window, it does not follow that it will do as much on every woman. One would not believe the blunders which woman will make, did not one see illustrations of such "breaks" on every side. The student who wears light fabrics of large and flaring patterns, the slim "slanky" women who adopt styles with long, severe lines, the short, dumpy figures that cut themselves in two in the middle of their bodies, or the girl who is a glaring contrast between the bust of the skirt and the waist, encompass as about on every side.

The tailor is the best friend of the woman who must be economical about her clothes. A tailor made gown, if the style in which it is fashioned is carefully chosen, is likely to suit almost any figure. Its simplicity disarms criticism and renders it appropriate for nearly any occasion except one where tail dress is required. The woman who has a tailor made skirt and jacket of good cut can let her fancy go a bit in the matter of skirt waists. She may have them plain and serviceable for morning wear, dressy and frilly for evening or the theatre or small social affairs, and she may seek a compromise between the two for a waist to wear to church or to lectures. And with each and all of them there may be worn the same skirt and no one who consumes upon the perianth with which it appears, so long as the waist is what it should be and the skirt itself is not startling in colour or in style.

Black is a boon to the woman who can afford only one or two new costumes a year. She must buy good black in the first place and then, if she takes tolerable care of it, it will look well always. For the women who object to black, (and there are such women) there are dark blue, dark green, dark brown and the other indeterminate shades or mixtures that are plentiful. With one good tailor made gown of heavy weight for winter wear, another of lighter material for spring and fall, and a third waist plain and dressy, at discretion, a woman may feel provided for, even if she goes out a good deal.

One sensible woman of my acquaintance makes it a rule not to have more than two ordinary gowns on hand at one time. As soon as the first one begins to lose its original freshness, she buys another and takes number one into service for second best. By the time this is wholly past worthy the second gown is ready to retreat to a more retired position and to yield the field to a new costume. The only objection to this in tailor made frocks is that the jackets are likely to accumulate until there are more on hand than one can wear out. So it is as well to break the sequence by an occasional slip.

All this is for the plain house or street dress. When one comes to evening dress the matter is more complicated. Even here the separate waist comes in as a respectable makeshift. I know a woman who considers herself fortunate in owning a handsome black broadcloth gown, which she wears on state occasions, at receptions and teas.

When she goes to a dinner where full dress is essential, she exchanges the black broadcloth waist for a low necked bolero of chiffon and crepe de chine, but the black broadcloth skirt is still worn. If she could, she would indulge herself in a heavy silk skirt, but as she cannot, she relies upon the combination I have described.

Judge of District Court Plainly Speaks His Mind.

It is with pleasure that I give my hearty endorsement to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the most successful remedy that I know of for the weakened condition of the digestive organs which excessive heat or overwork sometimes brings, causing indigestion, sick headache, a disagreeable or bitter taste in the mouth, sleepless nights and a complication of unnatural conditions, making one feel sick all over. Your remedy is scientifically prepared and well calculated to renovate the entire system, cleansing and vitalizing the blood and assisting the stomach to perfect assimilation of the food, which will soon restore health and harmony.

Sincerely yours,

E. E. Willard

Judge of 10th District, Daniel County, Florida.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" restores the long lost appetite; it strengthens the weak stomach and corrects the impaired digestion; it promotes the flow of digestive juices and facilitates the assimilation of the life-giving elements of the food into the blood. When the blood is pure and rich, old inert tissues are torn down, carried off and excreted, and new, healthy muscular tissues replace them. In this way it puts on healthy flesh up to the normal weight and fortifies one against all disease-breeding germs. It allays inflammation of the mucous membranes, soothes the cough, facilitates expectoration, and deepens the breathing, supplying the system with a much needed stock of oxygen. It drives out all impurities and disease germs.

$3,000 Forfeit!

Will be cheerfully paid, in lawful money of the United States, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if they cannot show the original statement and signature of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing attesting the superior curative properties of their several medicines, and thus proving the genuineness and reliability of all the multitude of testimonials volunteered by grateful people, in their behalf.

"I feel it my duty to write you as I have received so much benefit from the use of your medicines," says Mrs. E. Sando, of Elm, Iowa. "I was troubled with torpid liver, indigestion, and nervous prostration, for about eighteen months and lost strength so that I was unable to do any work. Consulted several doctors but without receiving help. They advised me to have an operation for gall stones, which I thought would be the very last step I would take. I then sat down and wrote to you for advice, some five or six months ago, and have since been taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Can now say that I am well and able to do all my work, besides doing lots of weaving. The last two months I have woven about four hundred yards of carpet and feel now that I will keep on with it as I like the weaving business so well. I took only eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets."

"I will be glad if I can say anything to those who are suffering as I did." "I was taken sick nine years ago with fever," writes Mr. M. M. Wardwell, of Livonia, Leavenworth Co., Kans. "Had the doctor and he broke up the fever all right, but I took diarrhea right away; he couldn't cure it and it became chronic, and then he gave up the case. I got so weak with it and had piles so badly I couldn't lie down, nor hardly sit up. Was that way two or three months; thought I would never be well again; but picked up one of Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Books one day and saw your description of catarrh of the stomach. I thought it hit my case. We had a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house at the time, so I began taking it. The one bottle nearly cured me. I got two bottles next time and took one and one-half and was well. I haven't been bothered with diarrhea since."

A FEW PENNIES will pay the expense of mailing Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume.

Narrowly Escape Death.

Hawesville, Ky., March 30.—While driving to their home below the city Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stettin narrowly escaped an accident which might have meant death to both. In struggling through the unspeakably bad road in front of the Hawley place the horse suddenly choked and fell over the river bank, taking the buggies. The occupants managed to get out just as it toppled over. The bluff is probably twenty feet high and the river was almost to the edge. The horse is a very large and spirited one and strange to say was not at all frightened. There was no damage except to one of the backing straps.

Laid Aside For the News.

Evansville, Ind., March 28, 1904. Mr. J. D. Babbage, Editor—Pleasant enclosed $1.00 for one year's subscription to the "good old News". I have been here nearly two years. The News came here with me and as long as I remain I expect the News to visit me each week. We can't get by without it. We take a city paper but on Wednesday evening, it is laid aside until the News is thoroughly read.

I am employed here in a wholesale grocery store. We very often ship a bill of goods to B. & Son and C. & L. S. Cloverport.

You will also find enclosed estimates on the number of paid admissions to the World's Fair during the month of May. Trusting I will be lucky enough to win some prize and wishing the News and all Cloverport success, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
O. W. SANDERS.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind. when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Grip, etc., are not the least of the many cures effected by all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by Short & Haynes Druggist. Trial bottles free.

Hot Times in Illinois.

An incident of the convention of the Republicans of Marion county, Ill., was a fight of more than one hundred delegates with chairs. A charge of fifty delegates, wielding chairs, against fifty other chairbanders, must be spirited and healthful. The surcharge of enthusiasm in several Republican conventions has taken this athletic form, as agreeable to the delegates as to the chair manufacturers. The conduct of Deputy Sheriff Simcox at these Marion county games cannot be blamed too much. He "drew a pistol"—pulled a gun—"and restored order". The friends of good, clean chair-play must protest against the introduction of pistols into county sport. New York Sun.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.
"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Wadron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I moved. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by Short & Haynes.

Beatty Given Five Years.

The heaviest sentence passed at this term of the Federal Court was imposed yesterday upon Ollie Beatty, the Fordville photographer, who was found guilty of raising $1 bills to $10, when Judge Walter Evans sentenced him to five years in the United States prison at Atlanta. The motion for a new trial was overruled—Wednesday's Louisville Herald.

DO YOU NEED A MEDICINE?

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO INVESTIGATE.

There is no one who does not need a Liver Medicine occasionally. The symptoms of Liver Complaint are well known to every one, such as constipation, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, headache, a tired feeling and many others of a similar nature.

Thousands die annually by not heeding the warnings of nature. Many acquire the chronic disease from which they never recover.

Many of these could be spared for years of usefulness by keeping in the home some reliable remedy.

We believe that we can convince any fair-minded person that there is no better remedy for the Liver known, than Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. The formula is known, consisting of: Buchu, Hydrangea, Mandrake, Yellow Dock, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Gentian, Senna and Iodine of Potassium. You know just what you are taking. How many other formulas of a liver medicine are published? Ask your druggist about this. It is already prepared and can be taken immediately.

Your doctor, however skilful, can not make a mistake in writing a prescription, or a drug clerk to make a mistake in compounding the same, (besides a doctor's bill and the cost of the medicine.) You can be absolutely sure of the proper proportion being in every dose.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has been used with the greatest confidence and success in thousands of homes for 52 years, and is prepared by a pharmacist of 20 years' experience, in a laboratory equipped with the most modern appliances for the most perfect safety.

If you do not understand your case, write today for a free sample bottle and full particulars. You will receive a full description of the medicine, its uses and symptoms for which it is adapted. We know what it will do for you.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Kentucky in Foreground.

Washington, March 30.—Kentucky will be in the foreground at the Republican National Convention. Senator Joseph W. Chandler, of that State, is expected to deliver the opening address, and the details for the convention, called on John W. Yerkes this morning and gave him the first glimpse of the plans of the convention hall.

"Now, sir, you may select Kentucky's seat," said the Senator. Mr. Yerkes used the best judgment he could muster and chose splendid seats for the State's delegation. They are well to the front.

Hancock County's Cannery.

Hawesville, Ky., March 30.—Mr. M. H. Harris, secretary of the Hancock Union Canning company, was in the city this week. Mr. Harris states that 100 acres of tomatoes will be grown and canned this year. The capital is $1,500 and many of the leading farmers of that neighborhood are share holders. The officers are: Charles Cahal, president; B. F. Powers, treasurer; J. M. Harris, secretary. The directors are: Richard Sapp, C. A. Walker, Charles Campbell and J. L. Duke. Nothing but tomatoes will be handled this year.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For Sale by Short & Haynes.

To Improve Hawesville Church.

A number of improvements will be made about the middle of this month, if the weather permits, on the Hawesville Catholic church, which Father C. Brev, of this city, is pastor. The principal improvements will be a new tower and belfry, which, when completed, will make the building a very modern house of worship.

Gilliland-Gregory.

Miss Mary Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gregory, was married Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock to Milton Gilliland, of Hot Springs. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Rube Lasie, by Rev. S. O. Christian, of the Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Gilliland will make their home at Hot.

Jas. Logan Graduates.

Jim Logan graduated this week from the pharmacy department of Purdue University with a high grade in the final examinations and will return home Friday. On Monday he will take a position in Bayne's drug store as prescription clerk—Rockport (Ind.) Journal.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

Crude Thoughts As They Fall From the Editorial Pen—Pleasant Evening Reveries.

"If you're a gray-haired mother In the old home far away, Sit down and write the letter You put off day by day. Don't wait until her tired steps Reach heaven's pearly gate, But show her that you think of her Before it is too late."

Into every life some shadows fall. However bright and long a day, the night cometh. The delightful pathway strewn with flowers, and covered with mossy down, ends in prickly thistles, brambles and briars. The glad Easter day of one year ago may be tinged with unusual sadness today. Some sweet face may be missing, some glad, cheerful voice may be hushed, some touching song unsung, some blessing unpronounced, some kindly admonition as spoken.

Some of our fathers are so busy making the living, and some of our mothers are so busy with household cares, that they forget the better part and the real object of it all, which is the making of a home. For them we pause on the following thought: "The memory of a beautiful and happy home at childhood is the richest legacy that parents can leave to their children. The heart will never forget its hallowed influence. It will be an evening enjoyment to which the lapse of years will only add a new sweetness. Such a home is a constant inspiration for good, and as constant a restraint from evil."

God never intended that strong, independent being should be reared by clinging to others, like the ivy to a oak for support. The difficulties, hardships, and trials of life—the obstacles one encounters on the road to fortune—are positive blessings. They knit his muscles more firmly, and teach him self-reliance, just as wrestling with an athlete who is superior to us, we increase our own strength, and learn the secret of his skill. All difficulties come to us, as Bunyan says of temptation, like the lion which met Sampson: the first time we encounter them they roar and gnash their teeth, but, once subdued, we find a nest of honey in them. The greatest curse that can befall a young man is to lean, while character is forming, on others for support. He who begins with crutches will generally end with crutches. Help from within always strengthens, but help from without invariably enfeebles its recipient. It is not in the sheltered garden or the hot house, but on the rugged Alpine cliffs, where the storms beat most violently, that the toughest plants are reared.

God placed Adam at the head of the household, but he created Adam and Eve equal, and true happiness can only come in married life through the manhood of the man being equal to the womanhood of the woman.

Why should hearts spend years on earth growing into one, knitting life into life, blending soul into soul, for a union that is not to reach beyond the valley of shadows? Husbands, you are the head of the home, yet you are not the head of the home for eternity?

This is the age of women. We find all the vocations, professions and trades of life opening their doors to admit the enterprising woman. Some are going into their own, and some are going into other people's business. In our admiration for the new woman there is danger of forgetting the wife and mother and woman's true sphere as a homemaker.

Young man, don't swear. There is no occasion for it outside of a printing office where it is useful when the paper is behind time. It also comes handy in proofreading and is indispensable when the ink works bad and the press brings in a blank. It is sometimes brought into use when the foreman is mad, and it has been known to entirely remove the tired feeling of the editor when he looks over the paper after it is printed. Outside the printing office it is a foolish habit.

No word you can utter for good of humanity will be lost or return to you void but will in time bear fruit that will tell in eternity. Make your mind a storehouse of good things and never lose an opportunity to scatter them broad cast amongst those in need of spiritual food.

"Loving words will cost but little, Journeying up the hill of life, In eternity, make your mind a storehouse, Stronger, braver for the strife."

After a fall starts to roll it will go a certain distance merely by reason of its own momentum.

The heavier and bigger it is the further it will roll. It may have been pretty hard to start it in the first place, but once you get it going a little push now and then will be all that is necessary.

If the ground is soft and rough you will have to push pretty hard. When you get to smooth places it will be easier.

The ball of business is hard to move in hot weather. The ground is more or less sticky and there is a great deal of friction. Still, if you push hard enough, you can move it.

In the fall, when cool weather has made the road to trade easier and smoother, you will not have to push so hard unless you want the ball to go faster. If you do not push at all it will come to a standstill even on a sheet of glass.

Somewhat has said: "The time to advertise is all the time."

That is one of the smartest things that was ever uttered. If you do not advertise in the summer—if you do not push the ball at all—it will stop. If you do not advertise in the busy season, business will go on for a certain time at a slow rate of speed. But if you want to get over a good deal of ground in a short time, you had better push it along lively.

The best thing to push it with is good, liberal advertising in the best paper you know of, a paper like the Boston Herald for instance. A peculiar thing about the road to business success is that it runs uphill—if you stop pushing your ball it will roll down.

There is no such thing as standing still.

The Message From Lundy's Lane.

The Fifth United States Infantry has adopted a motto, and it is a fine one. It was furnished by Col. James Miller, at Lundy's Lane. He was asked whether he could take a certain position of the enemy, and his hand went up in instant salute, when he said: "I'LL TRY, SIR."

He won his fight in a manner that is famous to this day. He won, as most of the "I'll try" kind of men do win.

Of course, a class or a regiment motto and a coat-of-arms are more or less feathers. Alone they never made a student nor a soldier.

But those things do make for pluck. They represent ideals and they act as spurs.

Did you ever stop to think what a different world this would be if there were no "quitters"? There are thousands of men in every walk of life. They can't do things. Sometimes, it is true, they are asked to attempt greater feats than they are mentally or physically capable of, and are to be pitied. But they could at least make a stagger at it, and die fighting.

In the stores, offices, shops, homes, there is always the element that is afraid. Some fear rules and some work. Others fear that they will do more than they are paid for. Some sulk because Recognition does not always meet Endeavor at the door.

And all in this class represent varying degrees of inefficiency. They do not succeed, because they do not deserve to succeed. They need constant applications and repeated doses of the spirit that filled the breast of Col. Miller, at Lundy's Lane. More battles are fought in the fields of commerce, you know, than were ever waged with powder and shot.

There is position and profit waiting for every man who will carry the "I'll try" spirit in his breast. Don't let the pessimists tell you that the field is overworked. It isn't, except with mediocrity.

The fellows who do not quite reach are always in the majority, and most of the time the fault is theirs.

It would be good if, over the door of every store and factory and office where men toil and hope for advancement, the brave words of the hero of Lundy's Lane could be carved in big letters.

For, "I'll try" is progress.—Cincinnati Post.
